EUROPEAN UNION CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

- leader, Lavard Skou Larsen
A spectacular opening night featuring the music of Mozart, Haydn, Dvorak, Elgar

This elegant 19 piece orchestra brings together musicians from all nations of the European Community. They are equally at home in the Concertgebouw in Amsterdam, the Palacio de Bellas Artes in Mexico City, Festival Hall in London, and now in White Rock Baptist Church.

WINDS OF THE SOUTHERN CROSS

From Australia's burgeoning musical scene

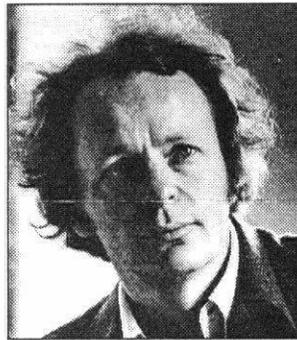

No musical constellation is rising so rapidly on the concert stages of Europe, New Zealand and their homeland of Australia than the WINDS OF THE SOUTHERN CROSS. And now a major Canadian tour with a mixed ensemble of winds, keyboard and voices. Watch out for a programme full of musical innovation and programme variety, ranging from a Bach Cantata to the great Quintet Opus 16 by Beethoven.

ANTON KUERTI - Pianist

The renowned pianist, ANTON KUERTI has contributed to Canadian musical life since 1966. He has played for over 125 Canadian communities from coast to coast: has appeared as guest soloist with every major orchestra in Canada, and on major European tours with the National Arts Center Orchestra. Recent worldwide reviews have called him "one of the truly great pianists of this century (CD Review, London) and "The best pianist currently playing" (Fanfare, N.Y.)

ANONYMUS

Early music from Quebec.
Feature recital: La Rue des Jugeleors

Since 1978, ANONYMUS has been bringing new life to Medieval Music. They sing, and they perform on a panoply of period instruments including lute, ud, zarb, shawm, organetto, and tympanum. ANONYMUS conjures up the spirit of medieval jugglers and minstrels. "They have captured the Magic of the Middle ages" declared the Washington Post.

ELEKTRA + A TOUCH OF BRASS

Celebrate the close of another gala season with a unique combination of two outstanding Canadian groups ... call it ELEKTRIC BRASS

The 35 voice Women's Choir, ELEKTRA, under the direction of Morna Edmunson and Diane Loomer has recently returned from Australia, where they represented Canada at the 4th World Symposium of Choral Music.

TOUCH OF BRASS - They produce a rich and burnished sound that has been celebrated since EXPO 86 and EXPO 88 and they are now firmly established as one of Canada's brightest and happiest brass ensembles.
